“The German Eleventh Corp in the Civil War”

Presented by: Joseph Lieby

What the battles of Gettysburg, Chancellorsville and anti immigrant prejudice did to the reputation of the Germans in the Civil War.

Joseph Lieby, Ed.D. : Joseph was born in Brooklyn, New York. He received a Master’s degree in psychology from Fordham University, and a Doctorate in education from Teacher’s College, Columbia University. He retired as a school district administrator, and has been engaged in genealogical research in the New York, New Jersey area since 1990. As a professional genealogist he has spoken at several local and regional societies on topics including “Getting the Most from Newspapers”, “Not Your Usual Genealogical Software”, “Westward Migration in New York”, “Who Were the Parents of --- ?” and “The Trail Our Ancestors Left in Becoming Citizens.” Short articles have been published in Family History Magazine, and Genealogical Computing. He is a member of several genealogical organizations, and in addition to being the president of Palatine to America, he is also 1st VP of the Orange County NY Genealogical Society, and the newsletter editor for the New York Chapter of Palatines to America.
