NEW BOOKS FOR SALE

DIRECTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY DIRECTORIES by Daniel H. Burrows. Dan Burrows has compiled this extensive list of all known directories that encompass Orange County, NY. Most directories contain individuals in Orange County Townships or other geographic locations. This is a big plus in Genealogical and Historical research covering periods when other records such as Census and Vitals do not exist or have missed individuals. They also fill the gap for the periods between Census records. Directories can be separated into several categories, depending on the mindset of the publisher. This Directory of Orange County Directories will help by listing what is available and where to locate them. 2021, 169 pages $28.00

ORANGE COUNTY GENERAL

THE CIVIL WAR DRAFT OF OCTOBER 1863 FOR THE DISTRICT COMPRISING ORANGE AND SULLIVAN COUNTIES OF NEW YORK

by Daniel H. Burrows. Daniel H. Burrows has provided the Orange County Genealogical Society with a new work titled "The Civil War Draft of October 1863 for the 11th District comprising Orange and Sullivan Counties of New York" utilizing newspapers published in Middletown, New York. Dan's transcription includes an alphabetical combined listing of Orange County Draftees copied from the October 8, 1863 Middletown Mercury and Sullivan County Draftees copied from the Middletown Whig Press. A town by town listing of Orange County and Sullivan County Draftees follows. The Middletown Mercury and Goshen's Independent Republican reported on the draft proceedings with differing views and these articles have been included in this 82 page booklet.

FORTY YEAR QUARTERLY COLLECTION CD created by Joseph DeLorenzo. Forty years of our publication, "The Orange County Genealogical Society Quarterly", has been digitized in PDF format containing Volumes 1 - 40 covering the years 1971 through 2010. The first 40 years CD is packed with queries, answers to queries, will abstracts, church records, revolutionary soldier sketches, letters, account books, entertaining tidbits, bible records, marriages, vital records, ancestor tables, family essays/histories, 'Where They Went' and "Where They Came From" series, newspaper excerpts, petitions to sell liquor, directories, coroner's reports, 1776 refugees, tax lists, and so much more. This CD is searchable. 2012, CD, 2,088 pages. $45.00

COLEMAN'S ORANGE COUNTY TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS by James Cash Coleman. James Cash Coleman, grandfather of current member and past president Ben Coleman, spent countless years traveling about the county by any available means to copy tombstone inscriptions into his personal ledgers. The ledgers retained by the family are now in the possession of the Goshen Library and Historical Society [Photocopies at OCGS]. Typed originally by his nephew Charles C. Coleman in 1941 and retyped in recent years by Patricia Waters, the inscriptions fill up 425 pages of information, much of which has vanished through the years. In some cases the cemeteries have disappeared. Annotations are abundant from the ledgers as to cause of death, spouse's names, and other miscellaneous information. Reference to page numbers in the original ledgers has been typed into this publication to allow examination of Mr. Coleman's original entries - but bear in mind, member Stella Higby not only painstakingly compared the new typescript to the 1941 edition, she also proofed it against the original ledgers. A recent index by Joseph Lieby brings it all together and available for your home research at a reasonable price. 2011 (1941), reprint, soft cover, added index, 484 pages. $33.00

ORANGE COUNTY JURY LISTS VOLUME ONE 1798 - 1825

by Kenneth A. Dunning. Months of transcribing done in the basement of the 1841 Court House have produced this new and valuable source of genealogical data with 13,265 entries that has been buried for over 200 years in a storage closet under the basement stairway. Hundreds of folded up sheets of Jury lists that the Town Supervisor, Town Clerk, and Town Assessors would put together affirming the competency of individual Freeholders residing in their towns were tucked away and buried in an old cardboard box. County lists were drawn from the ballot boxes where the names were added or removed each year on the authority of the Town Officials. The lists were used to find Jurors to serve on Courts of Common Pleas, General Sessions of the Peace, Circuit Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery. What has been organized and transcribed are: 1. Town lists of qualified Jurors whose names were deposited in the boxes at the County Clerk's Office AND 2. County panels of Jurors drawn from the names in these boxes used to find Jurors to serve on Courts of Common Pleas, General Sessions of the Peace, Circuit Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery. 200, soft cover, 268 pages. $22.00

ORANGE COUNTY JURY LISTS VOLUME TWO 1826-1837

by Kenneth A. Dunning. The much anticipated Volume 2 of "Orange County Jury Lists" is now available. Kenneth A. Dunning's transcription is a new and valuable genealogical resource beginning in 1826 ending with 1837. In addition to Ken's contribution, Daniel Burrows' eighteen page 'Juror Sources' points researchers to the original document where a name appeared. Town officials originally prepared these lists to locate jurors to serve on the Court of Common Pleas, General Sessions of the Peace, Circuit Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery. The lists are arranged alphabetically by surname and most entries include occupation and town residence. 2013, soft cover, 305 pages. $22.00

DEATH RECORDS [ORANGE COUNTY, NY] FROM THE MORTALITY RECORDS OF 1850, 1860, 1870, AND 1880 by Kenneth A. Dunning. The four schedules abstracted in this book contain a total of 3,244 death records. Questions were asked by the Census takers concerning deaths that had occurred in the household within the previous year –meaning June 1st through May 31st as indicated in this book. The subtitle page at the beginning of each section lists the questions that were asked such as age, month of death, occupation, where born etc. The 1880 records have a two page spread of information put in a format that is easy to follow. A true treasure trove of genealogical information and a definite must have for Orange County research. An every name index created by Dan Burrows makes this book easy to use. 2006, soft cover, indexed, 146 pages. $16.00

ORANGE COUNTY MARRIAGES AND DEATHS FROM THE NEW YORK STATE 1865 AND 1875 CENSUSES Compiled by Dan Burrows and edited by Barbara DiMunno. At the end of family enumerations for each district in the towns and cities of New York State, the 1865 and 1875 Census takers asked questions relating to marriages and deaths that occurred in the previous year beginning June 1st 1864 ending May 31st 1865 and again June 1st 1874 ending May 31, 1875. This information was recorded for each election district in the towns. There is also an additional 5 year bonus of death records of soldiers who died in, or of causes related to the Civil War between 1861 and 1865. These death and marriage records were abstracted from the census microfilms by Dan Burrows and listed in the original order by Township and Election District. An every name index was also compiled which includes the maiden names of females when known. 2004, soft cover, indexed, 146 pages. $15.00

OFFICIAL VITAL RECORDS FROM THE VARIOUS TOWNS OF ORANGE COUNTY, NY --- BIRTHS, DEATHS, AND MARRIAGES 1847 - 1849 WITH A SUPPLEMENT OF ADDITIONAL MARRIAGE AND DEATH RETURNS by Jeanne and Lee Krish. The New York State legislature passed a law in 1847 requiring school district clerks to send vital record information to the Secretary of State via their local town clerk. Copies of these records were then forwarded to the county clerks. It appears that only statistical information was supplied to the State and the actual vital records remained with the town and county clerks. The law was difficult to enforce, and most school districts stopped doing this by 1852. Unfortunately Orange County stopped this practice in 1849. From various correspondence found with the records, it appears that many school district clerks did not file any returns to the town clerks. One town clerk actually supplied the names of the district clerks who failed to do their job. Therefore, many vital records were never recorded. Several years ago a drawer full of Vital Record Returns for the years 1847 through 1849 filed from the 15 towns (all those existent in 1847) of Orange County, New York were rediscovered by an

OCGS member. Jeanne Krish saw the need for these records to become easily accessible to the public and recruited her husband Lee to help create this monumental database. A true genealogical treasure enhanced by an every name index of 13,776 names of those who were born [including parents' names], married, or deceased along with any other names mentioned of genealogical value. A separate index of Marriage Officials has been added. 2003, soft cover, indexed, 288 pages. $22.00

ORANGE CO. CONNECTIONS from the Frederic G. Mather's 1913 Book "THE REFUGEES OF 1776 FROM LONG ISLAND TO CONNECTICUT" abstracted by Rachel Tefft. The above named book has many Orange County references and Rachel Tefft culled through the hundreds of pages and typed up this booklet full of Orange County connections. A list of the major surnames is included. The original book found in most NY genealogical libraries has an every name index for further research. 2004 partial reprint, soft cover, 50 pages. $6.00

EARLY ORANGE COUNTY WILLS (1731 - 1830) Two volumes in one, this photo duplication of the two most widely used Orange County NY research aids puts 450 pages of solid genealogy at your fingertips. Vol. 1 (63 pages) is an abstract of all names found in Orange and Ulster County wills filed in New York City between 1731 and 1788. It includes an index of wills and an every name index. Vol. 2 (387 pages) contains abstracts of all names and relationships found in wills that were filed between 1787 and 1830 in the Orange County Surrogate's Office. An every name index is included and Revolutionary Soldiers are noted. Two appendixes are included listing unfiled wills at the Surrogate's Court and a few wills proved in the Court of Common Pleas. 1997, soft cover, 470 pages. $35.00

EAGER'S (1847) HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY by Samuel W. Eager. The earliest of the three major histories has been reprinted by the Orange County Genealogical Society after revising the every name index to now include almost 4,000 more entries than any previous version. This handsome volume will include this index as well as a slightly revised subject index to bring the total pages to 768. This reprint will make an excellent complement to the Society's other two major histories that we also offer for sale. 1995 (1847) reprint, hard cover, indexed, 768 pages. $30.00

A HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY, NEW YORK (with illustrations and biographical sketches of the pioneers and prominent men) by E. M. Rittenber and L. H. Clark. This photo duplication reprint of the original 1881 volume is crammed full of Orange County history and genealogy. Each town is thoroughly discussed as well as many other subjects relative to the history of Orange County. A separate every name index is sold separately below. 2000 (1881), reprint, hard cover, 820 pages. $79.00

INDEX TO RUTTENBER AND CLARK'S HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY, NY by the Orange County Genealogical

Society. This every name index will work equally well with the reprint above or the original 1881 edition. 1979, hard cover, 262 pages. $24.00

PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF ORANGE COUNTY, NEW YORK by the Chapman Publishing Company. This long overdue reprint contains over 1,100 biographical sketches of Orange County families taken in the late 1800's. The first 116 pages have been omitted in this 3 volume reprint as they merely contain Presidential biographies used as filler in many such volumes throughout the country. An every name index has been added. 1895 (1995) reprint, soft cover, 3 vol., c1,475 pages. $89.00

THE HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY, NEW YORK by Russel Headley. Originally published in 1908, this work contains over 1,260 pages of history, biography, portraits and illustrations. The original oversized book has been reprinted into a convenient 2 volume set plus a matching index sold separately below. The extensive history section discusses localities and events in great detail. This is followed by a large biographical section with many references to earlier generations. Portraits and illustrations are located throughout the book and a brief listing of subjects, biographies and portraits is located at the end. 1993 (1908), reprint, 2 volume set, hard cover, 1,262 pages. $59.00

INDEX TO RUSSEL HEADLEY'S 1908 HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY, NY by the Orange County Genealogical Society. A matching volume to the above reprint and also works with the 1908 original edition. 1993, hard cover, 126 pages. $10.00

NEWBURGH

HISTORY OF THE TOWN AND CITY OF NEWBURGH, NEW YORK INCLUDING A GENERAL HISTORY OF THE COUNTY OF ORANGE by Edward M. Ruttenber. One of the rarest editions of this comprehensive history of this famous historic city and town on the Hudson River. Mr. Ruttenber published a history of the Town and City of Newburgh in 1859. In 1875 he published a revised and expanded edition, and about 1887 he again revised it and added to it many historical addresses, perhaps a small quantity to account for its rarity. The Orange County Genealogical Society has created a 12,000 + every name index to this all important publication. Aside from the extensive history of Newburgh and the outline History of Orange County, this volume is loaded with area genealogies which are now unlocked by this new index. This edition is a must have for any Orange County researcher having ties to this area. We reprinted only 500 copies so supplies will not last forever. Owners of previous editions will want to purchase this edition for the corrections, additions, and especially the index. ca 1887 (2002 reprint), 496 pages, hard cover, illustrations, general index, index to photos and illustrations, every name index. $35.00

NEWBURGH IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION by Albert Gedney Barratt. WOODBURY

YE OLDE COFFEE GROUNDS by Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot. Nearly 200 years ago, John Coffee laid out a cemetery for his family on his farm in the lush Lower Clove (Central Valley). His son-in-law George Galloway carried on the family tradition. A broad approach to cemetery research, this book sketches the history of the area from the Cheesecock Patent, describes the local school and churches, and traces the ownership of the land from John Coffee to E. H. Harriman. It explores stories behind the gravestones and breathes life into forgotten names. Genealogical tables identify nearly 300 descendants of the cemetery's occupants -- Coffee, Galloway, Dickerman, Goff and related surnames. Easy reading and documented. 1994, soft cover, 68 pages, $12.50
