“Through Her Eyes”

Presented by: Elizabeth Holley

It's a true story of a woman born in Newburgh right before the turn of the century. She was a bigger than life character who drove when women didn't drive, worked in a lawyer's office when women did not hold those jobs, and went to business school when many women never finished high school. She later married another bigger than life character and together they forged an amazing life! She was Mamie E. Holley, my grandmother.

This program has been presented to a variety of audience types but always well received! Elizabeth is excited to bring it to you!

All programs are free and open to the public
